Florida International Piano Competition announces Finalists!by theArtsConnection on Fri 19 Sep 2008 10:55 AM EDT

The Florida International Piano Competition

*Wow! What an exciting week of music with talented pianists from around the world!Congratulations to the 3 Finalists:*Yekwon Sunwoo, Republic of Korea
Tatiana Tessman, Russian Federation
David Tong, Australia

They're among 22 incredibly talented musicians from around the world who competed in this week's first annual Florida International Piano Competition, also known this year as the "Grand Bohemian Orlando International Piano Competition".

What is it all about ?..."The Florida International Piano Competition is dedicated to pianistic excellence, presenting performances of great piano repertoire and providing an avenue for artists to launch their careers by winning a world-class competition".

Kudos to the Competition's Founder, Ellen Hamilton, and to its Artistic Director, Laurent Boukobza for putting Orlando on the world stage of piano competitions. Learn more about them and the Competition in the feature seen at The Arts Connection website!

This is a big deal...finalists are competing for cash prizes....$20,000 for First Place, $12,000 for Second Place, and $8,000 for Third place...plus future concert appearances!

The 3 finalists will compete in concerto performances at the Bob Carr Performing Arts Centre at 401 West Livingston Street in Orlando on Saturday, September 20, 2008 at 7:30 pm, accompanied by the Bach Festival Orchestra. It's open to the public and tickets are available at the door or through Ticketmaster.
