Classical Pianist Santiago Rodriguez

One of today's foremost interpreters of the music of Sergei Rachmaninov, Santiago Rodriguez has performed all of the composer's major piano works in concert. Called "a phenomenal pianist" by The New York Times and "among the finest pianists in the world" by The Baltimore Sun, Santiago Rodriguez made his Carnegie Hall debut under the baton of Dennis Russell Davies. His international career was launched in 1981 when he won the Silver Medal at the Van Cliburn International Piano Competition. Rodriguez' unique life and artistry were profiled on CBS Sunday Morning with Charles Kuralt in 1993. Currently recording the entire catalog of Rachmaninov's solo piano compositions, Mr. Rodriguez enjoys a distinguished reputation as a teacher and master-clinician. Later in the season, Rodriguez will be the chief judge at the Florida Int'l Piano Competition, but first he will perform in concert on Sunday, September 19 at 7 pm at the Shakespeare Theater at 812 East Rollins Street in Loch Haven Park in

Orlando. Call 407.645.2525 or visit www.FloridaPiano.org
